

SO STILL THEY COME

A Good Shoe Manufactory to Come to Durham.

And It Will Grow as the Town Grows So Great.

DURHAM IS REALLY IN IT NOW BIG

People Who Come and Go—Brief Brevities of Interest to All Readers of The Globe.

And still they come!

In these bright, busy, booming spring days, when the whole town appears to have turned loose and infant industries are constantly springing up in all parts of the city, it is impossible to keep track of them, and only when some particular enterprise is brought directly to our notice that we appreciate the extent to which we have already gone in the great business of city building.

Only to day THE GLOBE receives the cheerful information that we are to have, among numerous other things, in the near future a full-fledged and established shoe factory, the reputation of which since its establishment at Greensboro has not been confined to this state, and with the improved facilities and superior advantages gained by moving it to Durham, will assume much larger proportions.

Mr. C. H. Doughty, who as a shoe manufacturer is well known all over the country, writes THE GLOBE of the proposed removal. We print his letter which explains the rest:

GREENSBORO, N. C., March 10, '93.

TO THE EDITOR:—I don't know that it is news to you, but I expect to be one of you not long hence. A few weeks ago when I was down there, not being able to get the location I wanted any other way, I bought the house next door to the barber shop, opposite the Morehead Banking company. I will be there and open business Monday, the 20th inst.

I have the facilities, and so far as I am able and knowledge of the business goes, will endeavor to give Durham one of the best custom shoe businesses in the state. I shall not only make fine high price work but make cheap and medium grade shoes for those that want only comfort and durability.

I have been unable so far to get a house for my family. I need a house with six rooms, though I would make out with five until I can do better. Please keep an eye open for me, or if you think you can get one by inserting an ad. please do so.

Very Respectfully,
C. H. DOUGHTY.

—We have before us a revised programme for the Sunday school institute to be held in Durham this month. As announced in our issue of last Saturday the programme covered two days only, Saturday and Sunday, the 25th and 26th, but as now planned the institute will open Friday afternoon and close with Sunday evening's session. The change is occasioned by the postponement of the West Virginia State Sunday School convention which was to have been held at Martinsburg March 21-23. This gives Professor Hamill more time for the Durham institute, and two sessions have been added to the programme. Call on or write to Col. W. A. Albright, chairman of committee of arrangements, for copies of the revised programme.

"The Blood Is the Life."

Runs the old saying, and everything that ever makes part of any organ of the body must reach its place therein through the blood. Therefore, if the blood is purified and kept in good condition by the use of Hood's Sarsaparilla, it necessarily follows that the benefit of the medicine is imparted to every organ of the body. Can anything be simpler than the method by which this excellent medicine gives good health to all who will try it fairly and patiently?

COMING AND GOING.

Durham People on the Move and Visitors in the City.

Colonel and Mrs. J. S. Carr left last night for Washington and Philadelphia.

Mrs. J. B. Powell, of Henderson, came up to Durham Saturday evening.

Col. A. G. Cox, of Orange Factory, is here to-day looking after business interests and visiting friends in the city. The colonel is one of the men who recognizes in Durham one of the coming great cities of the South and has long since pinned his faith to it in the matter of solid investment.

Some Foolish People.

Allow a cough to run until it gets beyond the reach of medicine. They often say, "Oh, it will wear away," but in most cases it wears them away. Could they be induced to try the successful medicine called Kemp's Balsam, which is sold on a positive guarantee to cure, they would immediately see the excellent effect after taking the first dose. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial size free. At all druggists.

AS TO THE RIVER.

Colonel Postley Says That the Potomac River Is "Not in It."

Col. C. T. Postley who has just returned from Washington, Baltimore and New York, says that at Washington he tried to find the Potomac river, but it has gone dry.

He says that he sold the Eno river, subject to confirmation by the county commissioners, and will deliver it the next dry spell.

Why will you suffer from indigestion and dyspepsia? Simmons' Liver Regulator is pleasant and cures.

COREY'S OFFER.

Gossip About the Second Assistant Secretaryship of State.

BROOKLYN, N. Y., March 10.—It was reported here this morning that President Cleveland had offered Henry B. Corey, a young lawyer and the son of Rev. Dr. Corey, of Washington, the place of second assistant secretary of state, and that Mr. Corey had declined.

Mr. Corey refused to confirm the rumor to-day, but said that circumstances would not permit him to accept such a position.

So far as could be learned, if such an offer was made to Mr. Corey, the administration had no preliminary conference with Hugh McLaughlin or his representative about the matter. Mr. Corey is not a member of the regular democratic organization, and was an enthusiastic anti-snapper. This suggests that the machine would not take precedence in the matter of patronage.

The need of a perfectly safe and reliable remedy for the peculiar diseases of summer is universal. As a remedy for the household, office or the farm, on ship-board, and for travelers by sea and land, Winkelman's Diarrhoea and Cholera Remedy has proved its inestimable worth in the prompt relief and cure of all disorders originating in the stomach and digestive system, such as cholera, cholera morbus, diarrhoea, cramps, etc. Serviceable under all conditions, and always ready for use; is perfectly safe. Price 25 cents at all druggists.

SAM ADAMS SAW IT!

The Great Boston Blaze Witnessed by Colonel Sam.

A Globe Reporter, as Usual, Was on the Ground.

THE DAMAGE DONE WAS VERY GREAT

But Nothing Compared to the Fifteen Lives That Perished in the Licking Lurid Flames.

Boston, March 11.—[Special.]—There was a great fire here last night, $5,000,000 worth of property being destroyed besides loss of life and limb.

The fire was in the heart of the manufacturing district and the buildings burned were crowded with employees of the various establishments.

Fifteen deaths are reported, and forty injured by jumping from high windows. Many of these will die and others be crippled for life.

All the surrounding cities have come to the rescue of the sufferers and are furnishing valuable and timely aid to the afflicted families.

SAMUEL L. ADAMS.

Another Account.

The following is the report by associated press to the morning papers:

Boston, March 10.—Fire broke out about 4 p. m. in the building owned by F. D. Ames, corner of Essex and Lincoln streets, and involved the entire block, the fire was under control shortly before 8 o'clock. The area burned over comprises practically one whole square, bounded on the north by Essex street, on the east by Lincoln street, on the south by Tafts street, on the west by Vinzon street.

In addition to this square, one building on the north of Essex street, extending on the north of Essex street, extending along Columbia street, was burned; also three building on the east side of Lincoln street; also one on south side of Tafts street, Emergency hospital, which was part of the United States hotel, and the rear corner of the hotel. The loss will probably reach $3,000,000. Three unidentified bodies have been taken from

FOOD FOR REFLECTION.

Perhaps you think that no reflection is necessary when it comes to the purchase of groceries. The truth is that, while it is easy to be suited, it is just as easy, and perhaps a trifle easier, not to be suited at all. There is one effective precaution which the buyer can always take, and which will make the rest plain sailing. Take the precaution of buying at the right place if you want to avoid all sorts of unpleasant complications. At the right place quality is right, and prices are right. We can give you everything, except one thing—fault to find. Just now, we are calling special attention to our line of Jellies, Preserves, Canned Goods, Plain, Mixed and Sweet Pickles, Irish Potatoes for seed, and anything else kept in a first-class grocery store at wholesale or retail. Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded. Goods delivered free anywhere in the city. Call and see us.
